

MOSES – In the Footsteps of the Reluctant Prophet

The Bible Study for fall afternoons will begin on November 7th, for a six-week period. Led by Carl Taylor, class sessions will begin at 4:00 p.m. in the downstairs classroom of the DeKing gym.

The author, Adam Hamilton, observes in the beginning of the book, that there are many things he appreciates about Moses' story. He says that Moses was an unlikely hero. But this book is not intended to be a biography of Moses, a verse-by-verse exposition of his story, or a scholarly commentary on Moses. Instead, Hamilton's hope is that the book will help readers not only come to know Moses, but to see how his life and story speak to our lives and stories today. His goal is that Moses' story will reveal to us something about God, about ourselves, and about God's will for our lives.

Register in the Narthex, then pick up a book ($16) in the office. Couples will need only one book. Everyone will be expected to bring your own Bible, as well as a spiral notebook or an electronic means for journaling, such as a tablet. Obtain your textbook before the first session so that you can read at least the first chapter prior to meeting.
